SUPERVISORS HOLD FAREWELL SESSION

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors last night, when the routine business had been dispatched, a resolution presented by Mr. Dwight, seconded by Mr. Fern, was adopted with applause, which expressed in the preamble the Board's appreciation of "the able and zealous administration of Mr. Charles Huestace, Jr., as chairman of this board. It was resolved: "That we, the members of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Oahu, thoroughly appreciating the valuable services, courtesy and executive ability of our chairman, Mr. Charles Huestace, Jr., do hereby extend to him our sincere thanks for the able, efficient and courteous manner in which he has performed the duties of executive head of this board, and extend to him our best wishes for his success and happiness in the future affairs of his life."

Just before the introduction of the resolution, Chairman Huestace had made a general financial statement showing that the board would leave about $15,000 in the general fund to his successor, the municipal board. He said people did not realize the fact that the board had handled $1,044,000 in its two years of office. "I want to thank this board," the chairman added, "and all the officers of the county. If the incoming board handles affairs as well as the outgoing one, I do not think there will ever be any call for government by commission."

After the adoption of the resolution Mr. Huestace said in part: "We have made a success. I think the affairs of the county have been administered as well as the Territorial affairs. We have not registered a warrant, we have always had money in our pocket. We have saved wood. In after years I shall look back and say I am proud of having belonged to a board composed of Hawaiians." He then called for remarks befitting the close of the county regime.

Vice Chairman Cox said the county districts praised the county government. They had little work under the Territorial government, now there was work all the time. He praised the administration of the chairman.

Mr. Fern said he was sorry he ran for Mayor, the way they had taken him up and into the court four times. However, he had been given the decision that morning and would take up the duties and endeavor to work in harmony with the new board. They should not spend all the money in one month, but save it and have some to spend every month.

Mr. Dwight had nothing to say when called on, and Mr. Kealoha concurred with the prevailing sentiment by offering his aloha.

Mr. Archer said he was not ashamed of the performances of the board. He had been twice a member and done the best he could. Now there was a fine macadamized road, complete save for 200 yards, from Pukaki hill to Honolulu and people enjoyed it in automobiles every Sunday. He hoped the new board would finish the belt road around the island before the end of its term. Though having had little differences with the chairman he had had confidence in him. "It's a good thing there's one haole on the board," he concluded amidst laughter.

Mr. Huestace gave instances of substantial improvements in every department.

County Attorney Cathcart felt he could say for every head of a department that they looked with regret at the termination of the term of that board. For himself he thanked them for their support. They had given him office a pretty good law library. "I agree with the chairman that this community does not know the work that has been done by this board," Mr. Cathcart continued. "It can challenge comparison with any board in the United States. Its administration has never been equalled in any respect by the Territorial government. When we hear talk about county government not being efficient it is because people are ignorant of what is being done. A good deal is due to the financial ability of the chairman, but he could not have done so well if he had not been supported by the board. Good work by the county government means government by the people, not by persons regarding whom the people have had nothing to say about their appointment."

Deputy County Attorney Milverton acknowledged that during the time he had been connected with the county government his relation with the chairman and members had been most pleasant.

Clerk Kalaualani, Auditor Bicknell, Engineer Gere, Road Supervisor Cummins, Fire Chief Thurston and Electric Light Superintendent Frazee all made remarks, telling of the support their departments had received. Mr. Frazee mentioned that when he took hold there were only 130 arc lights for the city and it seemed to him more were going to be added. But the board entertained the petitions of localities so readily that now Honolulu was lighted by 270 arc and 350 incandescent lamps.

The pleasant session was concluded later, when Assistant Clerk Buffaloeau, at a signal from the chair, unveiled a framed group photograph of the retiring board. The chairman then presented each member with a copy of the gift of J. J. Williams, photographer.

BUSINESS DONE.

The claim of property owners at Waipahu on account of a ditch was settled for $100, one of the claimants being present and consenting. County Attorney Cathcart had advised resisting it, but it was thought the settlement was cheaper than a lawsuit. Messrs. Cox and Archer regarded the claim as just.

The official count of cash showed there ought to be $20,673.52 in the treasury, against which stood unpaid warrants amounting to $8001.90. Mr. Archer also presented a statement showing the treasury balance at $20,078.46 and the road fund additional $3384.75.

Fire Chief Thurston reported five fire calls during December, with a property loss of $128.35, the liability of the insurance companies being only $14.35.

Captain Berger sent in a report on the Hawaiian band, showing it had played 530 times in 1907 and 521 times in 1908.

There was a string of bills from various departments passed.

WILEI PAID FOR POLICE PROTECTION

His wife is a particularly bad one on account of the fact that their own daughter, Missu, was compelled to support her parents by a shameful life. Charges will be brought against others than those mentioned and three warrants are now out for service. The members of the ring have become frightened, however, and mostly have left this city. One suspect was arrested yesterday afternoon, in Waimanalo, where he stated he had gone to get work.

TENDERS RESIGNATION

Chairman Huestace had announced to the Board of Supervisors, a few minutes to nine last night, that he knew of no more business to come before them.

Supervisor Fern then rose and said he had a matter to present. Forthwith he read his resignation as a member of the Board.

"I am very sorry to see this, Mr. Fern," said Mr. Huestace. "Is there no way you can hold out?"

"I have to resign to take my new office," was the reply. "The law will not allow me to hold two offices."

"Of course we cannot prevent Mr. Fern or anyone else from resigning," the chairman mused. "I do not see anything in the County Act to compel it, but if he thinks it is necessary it's up to the board to take action. Gentlemen, what is your pleasure?"

A long pause ensued and then Mr. Archer said he did not know what should be done.

Chairman Huestace thought the resignation should go to the governor, who had by law to fill the vacancy.

"If the Board refuses to accept my resignation I will have to go up to the governor," Mr. Fern rejoined.

"I refuse to entertain the resignation," quoth the chair.

"I must make my appointments between December 1 and January 1," Mr. Fern continued. "If it is not done right they will have me up before the courts again."

Mr. Archer thought if the Board had not the right to appoint a successor it had not the right to accept the resignation.

The chair then ruled that the resignation be received and placed on file. So it stood unaccepted, leaving the next move to the Mayor-elect.

SAM HARDESTY ROAD SUPERVISOR

It is understood in Democratic circles that Mayor Fern will appoint Sam Hardesty as road supervisor of Honolulu. Hardesty is a carpenter and his experience to fit him for a roadmaker, as mentioned by his supporters for the position, is that of having built a number of bridges. For some time he was a motorman for the Rapid Transit Co.

AVIATION ENTHUSIASTS SAY AMERICA IS SLOW

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Two enthusiasts in aviation arrived here today from Havre. They were Courtland Field Bishop, president of the Aero Club of America, and Frank S. Lahm, father of Lieutenant Frank P. Lahm, one of the United States army's specialists in aeronautics.

Speaking of the progress of aviation Mr. Bishop said: "I purpose to do all I can to arouse enthusiasm in this country in the new field. It is deplorable how little interest is manifested here in it. In France everybody is wild over it."

Mr. Lahm had this to say: "The experimental stage of flying has been passed and we have arrived at the time of practical demonstration. Aviation is going to have a great moral effect, because when you know that a man with dynamite may be floating above your house it makes you think. In the spring I think that there will be aeroplane flights from France across the English channel and back."

Both Lahm and Bishop highly praised the achievement of Wilbur Wright with his aeroplane in France.

ELKS AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Honolulu Elks are making grand preparations for the big annual minstrel show to be given at the Hawaiian Opera House on the nights of February 4th and 5th. The Honolulu public always look forward to the shows given by the Elks as they have the reputation of putting on the best up to date amateur shows.

The Elks have been very fortunate in securing forty of the best voices from the Kamehameha Schools for their chorus, and judging from the rehearsals which have been going on for the past six weeks, it is safe to say that the chorus work will eclipse anything ever heard in Honolulu. No expense will be spared to stage the performance in up to date style, and the scenic artists are already at work putting special local scenery for the big first part. Seats will be on sale at the Bergstrom Music Company on Monday February 1st at 9 a. m.

TOOK SANTA CLAUS MASK FOR CRIMINAL

Police officers on Hotel street, near Bethel, last evening, not long before 10 o'clock, received quite a jolt by the passage, along the street on the side on which they were not, of a fellow wearing a mask.

To the eyes of the alert cops he appeared ominous. To their minds came the story of Milkman Amarino being held up at the points of pistols by two men whose faces were masked. This must be the man, they thought. To think, even wrong, was to act in the chance of being right, so they got a move on and surrounded the poor chap who was wearing a cheap, red, ten-cent, paper Santa Claus mask without the snowy whiskers.

ALAMEDA AWAY FOR THE COAST

Oceanic S. S. Alameda, Captain Dowdell, left at 10 o'clock this morning for San Francisco with one steamer and 17 cabin passengers and 1,100 tons of freight, the latter including 5,622 bags of sugar, 1,529 bags of rice, 4,460 bunches of bananas, 563 cases of fresh pineapples, 1,900 cases of canned pineapples and 810 bundles of hides.

ORGANIC CHANGES

Acting Governor Mott-Smith stated this morning that he felt certain that the proposed amendment to the Organic Act, to allow railroad companies in this Territory to borrow money on the credit of the Government, had not been introduced in Congress by Delegate Kahalo. The draft of the proposed amendments to the Organic Act, as submitted to Congress, did not contain this feature and Mott-Smith believes that Governor Fear decided not to ask for its incorporation.

Secretary Mott-Smith also suggested the correction that the amendments to the Organic Act and other legislation were being introduced by Delegate Kahalo and not by the Territorial Executive.

INVITED THE CHILDREN.

Bonine has issued an invitation for the Molokai non-leprous children who are in Honolulu to see his moving picture show on New Year's afternoon. A section of seats will be reserved for them. It will be their first chance of seeing such a show.
